Sir,

I have the honor to report that a dead rat was found a few days ago in the Chamraj Station building in the Mysore City. The building was at once disinfected but subsequently the Sergeant attached to the Station succumbed to Plague and 2 more constables of the same Station are now laid up. I have therefore ordered the immediate immediate removal of this Station to a rented building in the Dewan's road which is situated in a better locality, with sufficient accommodation for men and lock up. I request that you will kindly obtain the sanction of Government for payment of the monthly rent of Rs 8/-, settled for the occupation of the building.
